Miss Doris Richards Marries Army Corporal in Caldwell

CALDWELL—Before a flower-banked altar in the Methodist church, Miss Doris Richards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Richards of Blooming Prairie, Minn., and Cpl. Harold Redman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Redman of Caldwell, were married Sunday evening.

The Rev. Harold N. Nye officiated at the ceremony which was attended by 80 friends.

The bride wore a white chiffon dress made with a lace and chiffon bodice. Her net veil fell from a Juliet cap and she carried a white Bible topped with an orchid.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Eldon Farner, sister of the bride. She wore a pink taffeta and net dress and carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations. Bridesmaids were Miss Violet Redman, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Luetta Edick of Homedale, cousin of the bride. They were gowned in pink and blue and carried pink corsages.

Linda Richards of Blooming Prairie, sister of the bride, and Carol Jean Edick of Homedale were the flower girls and wore yellow and blue organdy formals.

Mrs. Richards, mother of the bride, was dressed in navy blue with pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dusty rose dress with black accessories.

Acting as best man was LeRoy Samuelson, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. Ushers were Eldon Farner and James A. Redman.

Mrs. Nye played the wedding march from Lohengrin and Richard Williams sang several solos accompanied by Mrs. Nye.

A reception, given by the bride's mother, followed the wedding ceremony. Assisting Mrs. Richards were Mrs. Frank Wirta and Mrs. Ernie Edick, aunts of the bride, Mrs. Wesley Hausaurer, Mrs. Johnnie Fisher, Florence Wirta, Alice May Hausaurer and Mrs. Samuelson.

Following a wedding trip to McCall the couple will be at home in Newport News, Va., where the bridegroom is stationed.

The bride was graduated from Iowa Falls, Iowa, high school and for the last two years has made her home in Caldwell. The bridegroom is a graduate of Caldwell high school and for the last five years has been with the U. S. Army transportation corps. He spent four years in the German occupation stationed at Berlin.
